

Adelaide White Ribbon Breakfast

“Men Making Change”

Facilitated by Will McDonald from Nine Adelaide

Adelaide White Ribbon Breakfast Online 2021

Bringing together a Panel with varying perspectives of Men's Behaviour

You are invited to join this Virtual Event

Friday 19 November 2021 from 7.30am until 9.00am ACT

DAVID CAIN – Executive Director of Communicare in WA and creator of their innovative “Breathing Space” live-in program engaging men to end their use of violence.

ALAN THORPE – Director and Facilitator of Dardi Munwurro (Strong Spirit) in Victoria delivering leadership programs to vulnerable Aboriginal men.

TRENT LARKMAN – Primary Prevention Practitioner with WRA in NSW delivering collaborative, engaging and insightful training sessions with young men and boys.

The program will also include an update from a South Australian Government perspective by HON CAROLYN POWER MP, Assistant Minister for Domestic and Family Violence Prevention.

Why not get together with friends or colleagues to watch this event?

Learn how you can help change the attitudes and behaviours that support or excuse violence against women in Australia, and understand effective prevention

Cost: $25.00 or $15.00 for Students and Health Care cardholders

Booking: <http://www.trybooking.com/BUVYA>

Open from 6.00 am on Monday 18 October 2021

(All registered participants will receive the Zoom link 2 days before the event)

Enquiries: Cintra 0400 202 014 or Gillian 0408 840 998

Donations may be made to White Ribbon Australia via the link

<https://www.whiteribbon.org.au/Support-Us/Make-A-Donation/Donate-Now>